FORMER SECRETARY

OF THE CAULKERS' UNION RE-TURNS TO WORK AT WAYS.

Is Rumored That the Strike Will Be Settled Within a Few

Caulkers' Union, has broken the ranks of the organization and returned to work at the marine ways, like several of his brethren have done. It is claimed that the backbone of the Mr. Wise-Then, doc, you'll find the strike has been broken but the union caulkers and shipcarpenters who are still out, say that the few men who have gone back to work will soon be with them again, They claim the sting of frost and approaching winter has caused a few men to return to the ways but that with better weather the union will bloom again.

Supt. Mike Williams, of the marine ways, stated last week that he had eight union men at work who had gone out with the strikers and that more would return. The work he has on the ways is the Joe B. Williams and the Reeder, the former one of the largest towboats on the western waters, which recently sank above here.

The union men have been out for several months and several have gone elsewhere for work.

Mr. McCarty resigned before returning to work and he has been succeeded as secretary by B. C. Da-

A tip was given out today that negotiations were on for a settlement of the strike at the ways and that an amicable adjustment would be reached within a week or two.

THREE WEEKS

Before the Home Purchasing Suits Come Up in Circuit Court.

The suits against officers and directors of the Home Punchasing company will not come up until the equity docket is taken up three weeks hence. The common-law docket will be disposed of, requiring about three weeks, and Judge Reed will then take up the equity docket and devote

The Home Purchasing suits are for money amounting to between $35,000 and $60,000, alleged to have been wasted or misappropriated. The stockholders in the company are liable for whatever part of the stock they hold has not been paid in. In some instances they have paid noth ing. The officers are liable, it is claimed, for whatever amount was misappropriated.

K. of P. to Have Only One Lodge. It was decided last night at a meeting of Paducah Lodge, Knights of Pythias, to have only one lodge here. Some of the members thought it might be advisable to have two lodges in Paducah, as the present lodg is very large and is growing, but the lodge last night decided otherwise.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

"Humpty Dumpty" has secred a big hit in New York.

There is a scene in "Mother Goose" of the Palace of Fantasy, which is the only illustration of the latest European art fad known as "Vart nouveau." The rumor that Mme. Modjeska is going into vaudeville is dented. A big offer was made her if she would give a scene from "Macbeth," but she refused. Joseph Cawthorne, who plays the title role in "Mother Goose," will be starred next season, supported by a big musical organization, in a new play under the direction of Klaw & Erlan-

Chauncey Olcott's popular ballad, "My Wild Irish Rose," which was written for "A Romance of Athlone," has run into the thousands of copies, and the royalties have reached thousands of dollars.

An early date is set for the appearance of a new company in "Monsieur Beaucaire," the play which has won laurels for Richard Mansfield. As its star will appear Creston Clarke, son of John Sleeper Clarke and nephew of Edwin Booth.

George Edwardes, manager of the Lyric theater in London, who will present his Lyric theater company in "The Duchess of Dantzle" at Daly's theater, New York, Jan. 16, has especially engaged Lomprier Pringle for the role of Lefebvre.

A Heart to Heart Confession. "It seems," he said, "to give her the greatest happiness just to sit and listen to her talented husband talk."
